

Wonderful Grace of Jesus

651

1. Won-der-ful grace of Je-sus, Great-er than all my sin; How shall my tongue de-scribe it?

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line with chords and single notes. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes.

all my sin and shame,

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line with chords and single notes. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with italics used for the second line of the system.

gres - sions, sing it! Great - er far than

The first system of music features a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The bass clef staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

all my sin and shame,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble clef staff shows the vocal line with quarter and eighth notes. The bass clef staff continues the accompaniment with chords and single notes.
